

NORDUnet Network Inventory

About

NORDUnet Network Inventory (NORDUni for short) is a project for documenting and presenting physical network infrastructure as well as the logical connections between customers, services and hardware.

The project is divided in three parts.

NOCLook - The UI

NERDS - The producers and consumers

Git - The data repository

Read more about the three parts.

Discuss

E-mail:

Developers Markus Krogh and Johan Lundberg

Participate

NORDUni Git repository

NORDUni Issue tracker

NERDS Git repository

Learn

- Presentation
- Cookbook
- Setting up a NORDUni 3.0 instance
- Setting up a NORDUni 3.3 instance
- Setting up a NORDUni 2.0 instance
- Documentation

Road map

Thoughts about version 2.0

External links

Neo4j, non relational graph database

Django, web framework

Git, distributed version control system